I. Introduction.

Gregario A. Vargas, an inmate at SCI-Somerset, Somerset Pennsylvania, filed this pro se civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The complaint is accompanied by an application to proceed in forma pauperis.¹ We are subjecting Vargas' complaint to a preliminary screening pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. For the reasons that follow, the complaint will be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(b)(ii) and (iii).

¹ Vargas completed this court's form application to proceed in forma pauperis and authorization to have funds deducted from his prison account. The court then issued an Administrative Order directing the warden at his present place of confinement to commence deducting the full filing fee from plaintiff's prison trust fund account. Plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis is construed as a motion to proceed without full prepayment of fees and costs and the motion is granted.

II. Background.

Named as sole defendant is SCI-Smithfield.² Vargas alleges that on two separate occasions in October 2000, while housed in SCI-Smithfield's Restricted Housing Unit ("RHU"), he discovered foreign metal objects in his food. The first occasion was on October 2, 2000. While eating his meal of ham, peas and sweet potatoes he ingested something sharp and began to choke and vomit. Victor Rodriguez, Vargas' cellmate, yelled for help. When CO Powells responded, Rodriguez gave him a metal object he had removed from Vargas' food. CO Powells then called for medical assistance and Vargas was taken to the medical unit. Upon examination of Vargas' food, four metal objects were found as well as a rusty nail vomited by Vargas. An x-ray taken the following day revealed metallic objects in Vargas' stomach.

The second incident occurred on October 17, 2000. While eating his beef stew and rice, Vargas bit into something hard and immediately called aid. When CO Bigelow responded he checked Vargas' bleeding mouth and told him nothing was in his food tray without inspecting it. CO Bigelow did not call for medical assistance at that time. Vargas then started kicking his cell door while other inmates yelled. CO Bigelow then threatened the Plaintiff with disciplinary action. Experiencing severe pain,

² Vargas was housed at SCI-Smithfield at the time of this lawsuit was filed. All events described in the complaint took place at SCI-Smithfield.

Vargas passed out in his RHU cell, hitting his head and landing next to his cell door. When Plaintiff regained consciousness, he felt "someone kicking [his] head why'll (sic) it was against the door." Vargas' cellmate and other inmates shouted for assistance for "a good 30 minutes" before a medical team was called to the RHU. While laying "dizzy" on the floor, two officers (Sgt. Ewing and CO Bigelow) entered Vargas' RHU cell, and banged his head on the floor while handcuffing him before they dragged him from his cell in the presence of Lt. Lear and unidentified nurses.³

Vargas was then taken to the medical unit where he claims to have suffered an "attack" of some sort. After a period of time a nurse removed a "little nail" from his mouth. Vargas asserts he attempted to file an institutional grievance on the matter but it "never made the box" as his "stuff is being thrown in the trash."

III. Discussion.

When considering a complaint accompanied by a motion to proceed in forma pauperis, a district court may determine that process should not be issued if the complaint is malicious, presents an indisputably meritless legal theory, or is predicated on clearly baseless factual contentions. Neitzke v. Williams, 490. 319, 327-28 (1989); Wilson v. Rackmill, 878 F. 2d 772, 774

³ Vargas' complaint does not name CO Powells, CO Bigelow, Sgt. Ewing, Lt. Lear, or any other specific individual as a defendant.

(3d Cir. 1989).⁴ "The frivolousness determination is a discretionary one," and trial courts "are in the best position" to determine when an indigent litigant's complaint is appropriate for summary dismissal. Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 33 (1992).

A plaintiff, in order to state a viable § 1983 claim, must plead two essential elements: (1) that the conduct complained of was committed by a person acting under color of state law, and (2) that said conduct deprived the plaintiff of a right, privilege, or immunity secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States. Groman v. Township of Manalapan, 47 F.3d 628, 638 (3d Cir. 1995); Shaw by Strain v. Strackhouse, 920 F.2d 1135, 1141-42 (3d Cir. 1990).

While there is no indication that Vargas initiated this lawsuit with malicious intentions, the complaint is suitable for dismissal under the in forma pauperis statute because it fails to articulate an arguable legal basis against SCI-Smithfield, the only defendant named. A prison or correctional facility is not a "person" within the meaning of § 1983. See Will v. Michigan Dep't of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 71 (1989) (holding same for state police); Alabama v. Pugh, 438 U.S. 781, 782 (1978); Fischer v. Cahill, 474 F.2d 991, 992 (3d Cir. 1973) (state agency not a ⁴Indisputably meritless legal theories are those "in which it is either readily apparent that the plaintiff's complaint lacks an arguable basis in law or that the defendants are clearly entitled to immunity from suit. Roman v. Jeffes, 904 F.2d 192, 194 (3d Cir. 1990) (quoting Sultenfuss v. Snow, 894 F.2d 1277, 1278 (11th Cir. 1990)).

"person" under Section 1983); see also Duvall v. Borough of Oxford, No. 90-0629, 1992 WL 59163, at *2 (E.D. Pa. Mar, 19, 1992) (county prison not a "person" subject to suit under § 1983); Brooks v. Pembroke City Jail, 722 F. Supp. 1294, 1301 (E.D.N.C. 1989) (city jail not a "person"); Mitchell v. Chester County Farms Prison, 426 F. Supp. 271, 274 (E.D. Pa. 1976) (county prison farm not a "person").

Although Vargas specifically refers to several correctional officers in his complaint, he only names SCI-Smithfield as a defendant. Thus, this suit can be dismissed under § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) and (iii) as his claim against the only defendant named in the action has no legal merit.

In reaching this decision, the court is aware of its discretion to allow Vargas to amend his present complaint to cure this fatal defect. However, we elect not to do so because Vargas has filed a second action that mirrors the claims and facts alleged in the present lawsuit. See Vargas v. Hoffman, No. 1:CV-01-0296 (M.D. Pa.). In that action, Vargas names as individual defendants Hoffman, Burks, Powell, Bigalow, Ewin and several John Doe kitchen staff. While normally the court would consolidate the two actions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a), it would be pointless to do so here as this action is subject to dismissal in its entirety for reasons already explained.

For these reasons, the Court will direct that this action be dismissed and that funds received from Vargas for payment of the filing fee are to be credited by the Clerk of Court toward his second action, Vargas v. Hoffman, No. 1:CV-01-0296 (M.D. Pa. 2001).⁵ The Clerk of Court will also be directed to file copies of exhibits submitted by Vargas in support of his current action in his second action. An appropriate order is attached.

WILLIAM W. CALDWELL
United States District Judge

Date: June 28, 2001

⁵The Clerk of Court has collected approximately $18.72 from Vargas as payment of his filing fee in this case. Although the court normally does not absolve litigants of their obligation to pay the complete $150 filing fee when a case is dismissed sua sponte on screening, or even when actions are consolidated, in this case the court will make an exception.
